

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

Case No. 14-67-BAT

V.

DETENTION ORDER

MANUEL MARTINEZ,

Defendant.

13 The Court has conducted a detention hearing under 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), and concludes 14 there are no conditions which the defendant can meet which would reasonably assure the 15 defendant's appearance as required or the safety of any other person and the community.

FINDINGS OF FACT AND STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR DETENTION

17 Defendant is charged with a crime that carries a presumption of detention and has failed
18 to overcome that presumption. He faces a serious charge carrying a minimum of ten years of 19 imprisonment if convicted and thus has an incentive to flee. The majority of his relatives live in 20 Mexico and he has frequent contact with them; he thus has a foreign country to which he can
21 flee. He reportedly has extensive contacts in Mexico and lived there for several months.

It is therefore ORDERED:

(1) Defendant shall be detained pending trial and committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a correctional facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences, or being held in custody pending appeal;

(2) Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel;

(3) On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the correctional facility in which Defendant is confined shall deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding; and

(4) The Clerk shall provide copies of this order to all counsel, the United States Marshal, and to the United States Probation and Pretrial Services Officer.

DATED this 6th day of March, 2014.

BRIAN A. TSUCHIDA
United States Magistrate Judge
